

Cathie Long Music Education Bursary

After the untimely death of Cathie Long, French Horn coach and LJYO supporter, Cathie's friends and family established the Cathie Long Music Education Bursary.

Purpose:

1. To provide the assistance to potential members who require financial assistance in order to participate in La Jeunesse Youth Orchestra (LJYO). An emphasis will be placed on supporting French Horn players, but support will also be considered for players of double reed instruments - Oboe, Bassoon, as well as lower stringed instruments: Viola, Cello, and Double Bass.
2. Funds up to $250 per member, per season, will be granted to the member for the following:
 - LJYO membership fees
 - Instrument rental
 - Music lessons
 - Other related music expenses, as approved of by the LJYO board

Requirements for Assistance:

1. Potential members or returning members must have auditioned for the orchestra and been accepted by the Music Director or Director of Strings before applying for financial assistance.
2. Potential members or returning members must apply for financial assistance by completing the Cathie Long Music Education Bursary application form found on the LJYO website and submitting it to the Orchestra manager.
3. Potential members or returning members must be attending private music lessons specific to their principal instrument.
4. Potential members or current members must apply each year for funding.

Process:

1. The Marketing Committee will ensure that audition advertising will include information regarding the Cathie Long Music Education Bursary.
2. Potential students or returning members must audition for the orchestra and be accepted by the Music Director or Director of Strings.
3. Potential members or returning members must apply for financial assistance by completing the Cathie Long Music Education Bursary application form found on the LJYO website and submit it to the Orchestra Manager by the deadline.
4. A committee comprising the LJYO Music Director, Director of Strings, and LJYO board representative will review the application.
5. The Board Chair or delegate will provide written communication of this decision to the potential member or returning member and ensure that the Orchestra Manager arranges for the financial assistance.
