

William (Bill) Edwards Memorial Bursary

William (Bill) Edwards loved the idea of young people learning a musical instrument and often expressed his admiration for the parents who dedicated themselves to getting their children to practice throughout the season. He wanted to be sure that a young musician was not denied such an opportunity because of financial hardship. This memorial bursary is to continue Bill's legacy as LJYO's longtime standing benefactor, by his surviving wife, Elizabeth Edwards.

Funds (up to $500 per member per season) may be used to cover LJYO membership fees, rental of instruments, music lessons, or other related music expenses approved by LJYO.

☐ I, _____(name), am applying for the William Edwards Memorial Bursary and have included a paragraph of approximately 250 words describing my suitability for this bursary.

Bill Boddington Financial Assistance Fund

Bill Boddington liked to help teenagers in financial difficulty, and he did this quite privately and without recognition. The Boddington Family would like to continue this legacy of helping teenagers and have established the Bill Boddington LJYO Financial Assistance Fund to be used to assist those who need support to participate in LJYO.

Purpose:

To provide assistance to potential members who require financial assistance in order to participate in La Jeunesse Youth Orchestra (LJYO).

Funds up to $500 per member, per season, will be granted to the member for the following: Instrument rental, music lesson, membership fees, other related music expenses, as approved by the LJYO Board.

☐ I, _____(name) am applying for the Bill Boddington Financial Assistance Fund and have included a paragraph of approximately 250 words describing why I am a deserving recipient.
